

PRIVACY POLICY - DEVON REWILDING NETWORK MAP

1. Introduction

1.1 We are committed to safeguarding the privacy of our website users and visitors.

1.2 This policy applies where we are acting as a data controller with respect to the personal data of such persons; in other words, where we determine the purposes and means of the processing of that personal data.

2. The personal data that we collect

2.1 In this section we have set out the general categories of personal data that we process in the creation of the Devon Rewilding Network Map.

2.2 We may process data enabling us and others to get in touch with you ("contact data"). The contact data may include your name, email address, telephone number, postal address and/or social media account identifiers. The source of the contact data is you via the Google Form associated with the Devon Rewilding Network Map.

2.3 We may process information contained in or relating to any communication that you send to us or that we send to you ("communication data"). We may process communications obtained via the Google Form associated with the Devon Rewilding Network Map.

3. Purposes of processing and legal bases

3.1 In this Section 3, we have set out the purposes for which we may process personal data and the legal bases of the processing.

3.2 Publications – We may process your data for the purposes of publishing such data on our website via the Devon Rewilding Network Map in accordance with your express instructions and not without your prior consent. The legal basis for this processing is our legitimate interests, namely the publication of content in the ordinary course of our operations.

3.3 Relationships and communications – We may process your contact data or communication data for the purposes of managing our relationships, communicating with you (excluding communicating for the purposes of direct marketing) by email, SMS, post, fax and/or telephone, providing support services and complaint handling. The legal basis for this processing is our legitimate interests, namely communications with our website visitors, service users, individual customers and customer personnel, the maintenance of relationships, and the proper administration of our website, services and business.

3.4 Record keeping – We may process your personal data for the purposes of creating and maintaining our databases, back-up copies of our databases and our business records generally. The legal basis for this processing is our legitimate interests, namely ensuring that we have access to all the information we need to run our business properly and efficiently in accordance with this policy.

3.5 Legal compliance and vital interests – We may also process your personal data where such processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject or in order to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of another natural person.

4. Providing your personal data to others

4.1 We may disclose your personal data such as name and contact information publicly on the Devon Rewilding Network Map if you have given us permission to do so when completing the associated Google Form.

4.5 In addition to the specific disclosures of personal data set out in this Section 4, we may disclose your personal data where such disclosure is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject, or in order to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of another natural person. We may also disclose your personal data where such disclosure is necessary for the establishment, exercise, or defence of legal claims, whether in court proceedings or in an administrative or out-of-court procedure.

5. International transfers of your personal data

5.1 In this Section 5, we provide information about the circumstances in which your personal data may be transferred to countries outside the United Kingdom and the European Economic Area (EEA).

5.2 The hosting facilities for our website are situated in the United Kingdom.

5.3 You acknowledge that information submitted through the Google Form associated with the Devon Rewilding Network Map will also be stored by Google in accordance with Google's own privacy policy which can be found at <https://policies.google.com/privacy>

5.4 You acknowledge that personal data that you submit for publication through our website or services may be available, via the internet, around the world. We cannot prevent the use (or misuse) of such personal data by others.

6. Retaining and deleting personal data

6.1 This Section 6 sets out our data retention policies and procedures, which are designed to help ensure that we comply with our legal obligations in relation to the retention and deletion of personal data.

6.2 Personal data that we process for any purpose or purposes shall not be kept for longer than is necessary for that purpose or those purposes.

6.3 Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Section 6, we may retain your personal data where such retention is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject, or in order to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of another natural person.

7. Your rights

7.1 In this Section 7, we have listed the rights that you have under data protection law.

7.2 Your principal rights under data protection law are:

- a) the right to access – you can ask for copies of your personal data;
- b) the right to rectification – you can ask us to rectify inaccurate personal data and to complete incomplete personal data;
- c) the right to erasure – you can ask us to erase your personal data;
